

I feel that the do not call list should be kept, and if possible, strengthened. Let's keep fighting for the rights of consumers, especially privacy rights and the right to be left alone.